A celebration of hospitality and excellent food

THE Peldon Rose restaurant has stood majestically at the entrance to Mersea Island for over 500 years as a focal point for a unique blend of hospitality, quality service and excellent locally produced food.

The tides of time have done much to encourage a healthy blend of local customers and those from further afield with an appreciation of the warm ambience of this famous inn.

When you visit you will quickly sense you have arrived at a special place – a much-loved, award-winning destination attracting guests from across East Anglia and beyond. A warm welcome awaits, whether you visit to explore great cuisine, relax with a drink in the cosy oak-beamed bar, enjoy a special event or spend the night in one of our charming guest rooms which offer a pleasant, comfortable and affordable stay.

The Peldon Rose is now re-focused with an extensive & stylish refurbishment programme to include a first floor private dining room for up to 14 persons, aptly named The Oyster Room.

Maybe you are planning a relaxing lunch with family and friends or seeking a fine dining experience with a modern

Sunday lunch has proved a special treat, and acclaimed by many as the finest on the north Essex coast.

The Peldon Rose is able to offer quality wines from across the world, real ales kept to stringent Cask Marque standards and a varied selection of other drinks.

The autumn programme throughout November and December offers special lunch and evening dishes, which have always proved popular with guests, with the log fires adding to the seasonal ambience.

Our Christmas & New Year programme is fast gaining momentum with party menus throughout December and promises an exciting festive season with a warm and friendly welcome, book now to avoid disappointment.

Cosy log fires,
15th century inn,
superb dining & genuine festive spirit.
